

Taste of the World

All answers are the title of a recipe (don't skip spaces between words)
Look in Index by Country p.145 to find countries

Across

2. a Peruvian dish that has Asian influences consisting of strips of sirloin marinated in vinegar, soy sauce and spices, then stir fried with onions, parsley and tomatoes
5. commonly a type of skewered chicken in Japan
8. a type of fried spring roll popular in the Philippines
12. a meringue-based dessert named after the Russian ballet dancer Anna Pavlova and is Australian
13. a classic dish from the Sichuan Province of central China, consisting of diced marinated chicken stir-fried with roasted peanuts and diced red bell peppers
14. cake for African American Holiday
15. Common throughout the American Southwest and Northern Mexico, it is generally served as a dessert with honey poured between its two layers (Mexico section)

Down

1. a vegetable casserole made of eggplant, tomatoes, zucchinis, red peppers, etc., fried in oil and stewed slowly (France)
3. small sponge cakes with a distinctive shell-like shape acquired from being baked in pans with shell-shaped depressions (France)
4. A stew or soup made with Kernels of corn that have been soaked in lime water, hulled, and dried (Mexico section)
6. Stuffed Armenian Vegetables
7. a sugar cookie from Denmark (opens the Scandinavian section)
9. a Potato and Cheese Dumpling from Poland
10. Yugoslavian Sausages (submitted from Central HS, Fresno CA)
11. a Louisiana Creole dish of Spanish and French influence (Americana)